JEREMIE & SHONDA HAHN TIFFIN

Jeremie and Shonda farm near Tiffin in Johnson County. They raise corn, soybeans, hay and cattle. They farm with Shonda's parents and have a combination of rented ground, crop share agreements and owned land. They do some custom farming as well. Most of the crop ground is no-till which was started years ago by Shonda's father.

Shonda runs a seed business called Eister Ag, LLC and is an Independent Seed Advisor for LG Seeds. She has worked for LG Seeds for six years, covering Johnson and Cedar counties. Jeremie works at First Trust and Savings Bank in Oxford as a loan officer.

Jeremie and Shonda are active members of the community. Jeremie sits on the Johnson County Ag Committee. Shonda is a member of Johnson County Women, Land and Legacy, helps with pictures for the local soccer and baseball leagues, and works part time at The Depot Express in Oxford. The couple also sits on the Friends of Clear Creek Amana FFA Board.

Shonda has been on the county Farm Bureau board for three years. She is the membership chair, and on the fair, annual meeting and Ag in the Classroom committees. This is Hahn's first year on the Young Farmer Advisory Committee. Shonda is currently serving as the PR chair and Jeremie is serving as the historian.

In their free time Jeremie and Shonda enjoy going to Hawkeye wrestling meets, watching Atlanta Braves Baseball, playing cards with the neighbors, going golfing and hanging out with friends. Jeremie enjoys riding his horse named Speck and Shonda has recently taken an interest in selling produce at farmers' markets.
