

YFAC

Spotlight

DISTRICT 3

TRAVIS & KATIE MOREY WEST BEND

Travis and Katie Morey are the Young Farmer Advisory Committee representatives from District 3 in Northwest Iowa. They reside on the family farm in southeast Palo Alto County 5 miles west of West Bend. They have two daughters Lilly and Maddie. Travis and Katie are fifth generation farmers, Travis helps his dad and grandfather row crop corn and soybeans. He owns a hay crop and cattle operation. Beside the cows, they have a pony, Tracks, and a springer spaniel, Lexi. When they find time, they like to help Katie's Dad and Uncle pack silage and harvest their crops.

Travis and Katie both work full time off the farm. Travis is a John Deere tractor mechanic for K.C. Nielsen in West Bend. Katie works in the Laboratory at Pocahontas Community Hospital. Travis is a graduate of Iowa Lakes Community College. Katie is a Graduate of Iowa Central Community College with degree in Nursing. When they aren't busy at work Travis likes to restore antique tractors, weld, and he is a volunteer firefighter for the West Bend fire department. Katie likes to spend her free time in the kitchen cooking, canning, and baking. The girls also keep her busy and are on a competition dance team. They both enjoy spending time with friends and family and keeping up with all the girl's activities.

Katie is on Palo Alto's County's Farm Bureau board. Travis and Katie are 2018 Young Cattlemen Leadership Program Graduates. They are looking forward to three-year term as Young Farmer Advisory Committee representatives, and meeting new people.

