GET TO KNOW THE WOODWARDS

Tyler and Abby live in Hamburg, Iowa. Abby, originally from central Nebraska, moved to Hamburg in 2017. Together they are raising two daughters, Eloise and Charlotte. Tyler is a sixth-generation farmer, proudly continuing the legacy of his late father, Tom, with whom he farmed side by side. Today, he carries on their shared passion for raising corn and soybeans in the Hamburg area and across the border in northwest Missouri. Abby, a former Family and Consumer Sciences teacher, is now a stay-at-home mom. She also supports the farm by helping with meals, transportation, and parts runs whenever needed. Tyler joined the Fremont County Farm Bureau board in 2020 and has served as Vice President since 2022. He also participated in the Ag Leaders Institute. Both Tyler and Abby have attended many Young Farmer Conferences and value the opportunity to connect with fellow farmers from across the state.
