

TED & MEGAN MCALLISTER

District 1 | New Vienna, IA

Ted and Megan hail from Dubuque County in Northeast Iowa, and were married on August 27, 2022. These 6th and 7th generation farmers currently farm side-by-side each day on Ted's family dairy farm. The farm consists of 270 milking cows, Holsteins and Jerseys, along with 420 acres of hay and corn silage; all used to feed the farm's cattle.

In addition to dairy farming full-time, the couple actively engage with consumers on Tik Tok, Instagram, and Facebook. On Tik Tok, they have over 300,000 followers and 9.5 million likes. They share information about their dairy farm, industry practices, animal care, nutrition facts, and debunk common misconceptions. They are active within state and local dairy promotion groups.

Megan served on the Clayton County Farm Bureau Board before moving to Dubuque County. In addition to being an active board member, Megan has served on the county Young Farmer and Public Relations Committees, competed in Discussion Meet, and received the 2021 Young Farmer Leadership Award.
